Primary Examiner

This is in response to Applicants' Preliminary amendment filed March 29, 2004.

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

In claim 6, on line 2, "said" has been deleted; and on line 6, "colors" has been changed to "color".

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art fails to teach a computer graphic apparatus and its method, among other features comprising: means for determining representative color of any metallic paint color out of colorimetric values of the metallic paint color at a plurality of angles of observation; means for converting the representative color into a hue-tone value; means for generating coating color computer graphics of the metallic paint color from the determining means; and means to arrange and display the coating computer graphics over the hue-tone value in a hue-tone chart.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

I) Wyman et al 4,813,000 disclose computerized color matching system having a computer and a colored data display.
